Convenient billing choices With Allied, you can have your premiums deducted automatically from your designated financial institution with the Flex Chek program. Or, choose from other billing options and pay by check, credit or debit card. You'll receive a single, combined billing statement for your home and auto policies, plus you choose your payment plan—pay the full amount, or pay in easy monthly installments.

"I appreciate all the billing and coverage options Allied gave me."

Protection for you, your family, and your auto

Allied's liability and property protection is designed to meet your individualized needs. We'll help you decide the level of protection you need. Coverages include:

Liability—Pays others for damages you become legally liable for, due to an auto accident.

Uninsured/Underinsured motorist—Provides bodily injury coverage for accidents caused by a hit-and-run driver, uninsured, or underinsured driver which occur when you or your family are driving a covered auto, or while you are a pedestrian.

Medical expenses—Pays reasonable medical expenses for you and members of your family if injured in an auto accident or as a pedestrian struck by an auto.

Collision—Protects you from losses resulting from damage to your auto due to collision with another object.

Comprehensive—Pays for other losses to your auto, including losses caused by fire, theft, glass breakage, falling objects, natural disasters, vandalism, and other causes of loss.
